The Gregorian chant in the Chant Compendium series (Marian hymns, Benediction hymns, etc) was sung with the right intention, and you can perceive it when you listen. These CDs are like genuine windows on the praise offered to God in churches all over the world, for countless centuries. These are not fake studio recordings, but authentic recordings of actual liturgical functions – public prayer offered to God. There is organ accompaniment in every piece (very well done) and the chant itself is excellent. Each CD is filled to capacity (over 79 minutes) with centuries-old Gregorian chant sung in the traditional Solesmes style. Includes lyrics to every track!

A Gregorian Christmas

11.99

This live recording includes much of the 3rd Mass of Christmas Day, part of the Divine Office for Christmas Eve, and several Marian hymns. These sacred melodies will surely help you capture the rich beauty of Gregorian chant and a truly Catholic spirit of Christmas. A wonderful addition to any Catholic home! Includes the following tracks: Isaias Chapter 9, Ecce Virgo, O Rex Gentium, Jesu Redemptor Omnium, Matins - Invitatory, Matins - Psalm 88, Matins - Psalm 95, Kyrie II, Gloria II, Alleluia - Dies Sanctificatus, Ave Maria, Organ Interlude, Sanctus II, Agnus Dei II, Communion - Viderunt Omnes, Ave Maris Stella, Sung Angelus

Divine Office of Matins

12.99

The Divine Office of Matins, sung with organ accompaniment. This is the Matins of Christmas Day. Beautifully done, this music will help you to raise your heart to God! Over 79 minutes of Psalms, responsories, and one VERY beautiful invitatory! The Psalms each have a different melody, so it is very compelling to listen to. The office of Matins is still sung like this in some seminaries and monasteries. The Psalms have organ accompaniment; the responsories do not.

Tenebrae: Divine Office of Holy Week

23.99

The Divine Office of Tenebrae. Beautifully done, this music was recorded during Holy Week. No organ accompaniment, as this is part of Lenten liturgy. 3 CDs worth of lessons and responsories. These recordings were done studiously according to the venerable Solesmes method. Exactly what you would have heard in a monastery centuries ago. Includes a 4-page booklet listing the tracks and where they can be found in the Liber Usualis. Tenebrae means darkness, since this part of the Divine Office was usually sung at night.

Mystical Chants of Carmel

14.99

The Carmelite Monks of Wyoming use Gregorian Chant in their daily prayer, to raise their minds and hearts to God. This is the fruit of their contemplative life. The Gregorian Chants included on this new CD, The Mystical Chants of Carmel, are their favorites in honor of the Mother of God which they have chosen from their daily chant repertoire. The CD has been digitally mastered in surround sound to help enhance the contemplative experience. Includes the following hymns: Audi Filia, Recordare, Gaudens Gaudebo, Beatam Me Dicent, Sancta et Immaculata, Signum Magnum, Ave Maria, Nihil Inquinatum, Stabat Mater, Flos Carmeli, Gaudeamus, Ave Maria Virgo Serena, Salve Regina, Ave Maris Stella.

St. John Schola

The St. John Schola of San Francisco, CA is a small, traditional lay choir. The recordings in this St. John Schola series consist of unedited, live recordings of the type of chant pieces that may be used at traditional churches and chapels. The St. John Schola makes no pretense to being professional, but wishes to show what is achievable, with a little work, by the average small lay choir. Our hope is that this series will serve as a practical guide for the wider use of Gregorian chant in the traditional Roman Catholic liturgy.
